

Tracey Clemmons Smith has been invited to join the Council on Litigation Management

November 5, 2010

Gwin Steinmetz & Baird PLLC is pleased to announce that Tracey Clemmons Smith has been invited to join the prestigious Council on Litigation Management. The Council is a nonpartisan alliance comprised of thousands of insurance companies, corporations, Corporate Counsel, Litigation and Risk Managers, claims professionals and attorneys. Through education and collaboration the organization's goals are to create a common interest in the representation by firms of companies, and to promote and further the highest standards of litigation management in pursuit of client defense. Selected attorneys and law firms are extended membership by invitation only based on nominations from CLM Fellows.

Ms. Smith is devoted to her practice of law defending insurance and transportation cases. She specializes in insurance bad faith claims and commercial transportation claims. Ms. Smith is honored to join CLM and continue promoting the highest standards of litigation management in the defense of her clients.
